PUBLIC ART ADVISORY COMMITTEE
APPLICATION FORM

PUBLIC ART ADVISORY COMMITTEE (PAAC)
Subcommittee of the Richmond Arts & Culture Commission (RACC)

Mission: It is the mission of the City of Richmond Public Art Program "to enliven and beautify the city environment, creating community pride for city residents. The program will encourage and promote awareness of the city's rich ethnic, social, and cultural diversity as expressed through visual, literary, performing, and design arts."

Who is the PAAC? The Public Art Advisory Committee (PAAC) is composed of a minimum of five and a maximum of seven members who shall serve a maximum of two, two-year terms*. Terms shall be staggered to ensure a degree of continuity. The PAAC shall include a maximum of three members of the RACC.

*If you are an artist serving on the PAAC you may not accept work on City public art projects due to conflict of interest. You may take a temporary leave of absence for the duration of the project.

What the PAAC does:

a. Recommends program policies and procedures to the RACC.
b. Recommends public art projects and budgets in the form of a Public Art Annual Plan to the RACC.
c. Reviews public art project designs for visual appeal, structural integrity, and safety.
d. Reviews and recommends (to the RACC) the acceptance or rejection of all proposed gifts or loans of artwork to the city.
e. Serves as community liaison and provides advocacy for the Public Art Program and its activities in all of Richmond's neighborhoods.
