About Mayor Tom Butt

Tom Butt was elected Mayor of Richmond in 2014. Prior to winning the mayoral election, he served on the Richmond City Council for 20 years (from 1995 to 2015) and served as the city's vice-mayor in 2002 and 2012. Mayor Butt has focused on efficient management of the city's legislative and fiscal affairs, promoting new housing development, ensuring a viable future for Pt. Molate, Hilltop Mall and Downtown businesses, and promoting a strategic Richmond marketing plan. The mayor's goals include reducing crime, fully implementing the city's Climate Action Plan, connecting youth and residents with meaningful job opportunities, expanding the Richmond Promise, and finding ways to meet the housing needs of our growing population.
