Deed Restriction:

Prior to obtaining building permits for an accessory dwelling unit or junior accessory dwelling unit, a property owner shall file with the Contra Costa County Recorder a deed restriction, in a form approved by the City Attorney, which must include the provisions set forth below. This deed restriction shall run with the land, and shall be binding upon any future owners, heirs, or assigns. A copy of the recorded deed restriction shall be filed with the Zoning Administrator stating that:

- 1) The accessory dwelling unit or junior accessory dwelling unit shall not be sold separately from the primary dwelling unit unless consistent with the provisions of Government Code section 65852.26 or successor provision;
- 2) The accessory dwelling unit or junior accessory dwelling unit is restricted to the size and attributes approved by the Zoning Administrator in its Zoning Compliance review per Article 15.04.804;
- 3) The accessory dwelling unit or junior accessory dwelling unit shall not be rented for a period shorter than 30 days;
- 4) For a junior accessory dwelling unit, the junior accessory dwelling unit or the remaining portion of the single-family structure must be owner occupied;
- 5) The restrictions shall be binding upon any successor in owner of the property and lack of compliance with any provisions of the Municipal Code may result in legal action against the property owner, including revocation of any right to maintain an accessory dwelling unit or junior accessory dwelling unit on the property.

Appendix 1:

A junior accessory dwelling unit is not permitted on a lot with an accessory dwelling unit unless the accessory dwelling unit is:

- 1) A detached, new construction accessory dwelling unit up to 800 square feet, up to 16 feet in height, and with up to four-foot side and rear setbacks; or
- 2) An accessory dwelling unit within the proposed or existing space of a single-family dwelling or existing space of an accessory structure. The accessory dwelling unit within the existing space of an accessory structure may include an expansion of not more than 150 square feet beyond the same physical dimensions as the existing accessory structure to accommodate ingress and egress. The accessory dwelling unit shall have exterior access from the single family home. The setbacks must be sufficient for fire and safety

Appendix 2:

The requirement of minimum separation with primary dwelling shall not be applied to prohibit construction of a detached ADU with a total floor area not greater than 800 square feet, not more than 16 feet high, and with side and rear yard setbacks of at least 4 feet.

Appendix 3:

No additional parking shall be required if the accessory unit is located:

- 1) Within one-half mile walking distance of public transit;
- 2) In an architecturally and historically significant historic district;
- 3) In part of a proposed or existing primary residence or an accessory structure;
- 4) In an area requiring on-street parking permits but they are not offered to the occupant of the second unit; or
- 5) Within one block of a car-share pick up/drop-off location. When a garage, carport, or covered parking structure is demolished or converted in conjunction with the construction of an accessory dwelling unit, the parking spaces need not be replaced.
